CLONTARF YACHT & BOAT CLUB

CLONTARF YACHT AND BOAT CLUB is one of the oldest yacht clubs in Dublin Bay celebrating its centenary in 1975.

The club is located on the coast road at Clontarf just 2 miles from the city centre. The club is an integral part of Clontarf its environs and Dublin City.

The club provides a sailing and boating facility for the greater Dublin area. The members are drawn from a varied cross section of the community and their interests encompass cruising, racing, fishing and general recreation on the water.

Many of the club members have attained national champion status in E Boats, Mermaids, Fireballs, GP 14's, IDRA 14's and Lasers.

The cruising section of the club has established itself over the years as a forerunner in organised cruising in company. Such cruising has earned Clontarf the reputation as a club with a strong vibrant sailing fleet and the potential to return a welcome invitation to ports visited.

Over the years the club cruising section has built up a good relationship with a number of clubs on the West Coast of England and Wales and cruises from these clubs visit Clontarf. Also the club fleet visits Northern Ireland on a regular basis and are always well received and entertained by the host club. The club is twinned with Peel Yacht Club in the Isle of Man.

Clontarf Yacht and Boat Club has hosted a number of international events without any undue pressure on expertise or resources. The club has achieved a reputation for its ability to host national and international events. The junior squad sail in Optimists, Mirrors and Lasers. Qualified instructors are employed to provide a structured learning environment for the juniors.

At present the club provides house facilities to existing and visiting members, a large capacity launch and full time boatman to provide a ferry service to the boats and moorings. The boatman is also on radio call to members and visitors. Clontarf has provided visitor-berthing positions for a number of years.

Clontarf Yacht and Boat Club have hosted the following events over recent years:

- E Boat Irish National Championships
- Fireball Leinster Championships
- IDRA 14 Open
- G P Purcell Trophy

SAIL TRAINING

At present sail training in Clontarf Y & BC is provided for:

● Juniors aged 10-18 years of age (ISA recognised)

The junior section of the club has been used as a model upon which junior sailing in Ireland is based.

● Adults aged 18 + with no experience

This course is well attended by people who wish to gain experience sailing a range of boats from dinghies to large cruisers.

● Adults aged 18+ with experience

Courses are based on internationally recognised ISA courses for Competent Crew, Day Skipper, and Yachtmaster and Coastal Skipper and Offshore Skipper. The club also provides courses and examinations on VHF radio handling and has recently introduced courses including electronic navigation, instrumentation, engine maintenance and general boat care.

Non sailing members together with sail members can enjoy a full range of all year activities such as Snooker, BBQs, Bridge, Darts or a relaxing drink in the refurbished members' bar or lounge.
