

The Couch Potato Series 2010

At Clontarf Yacht & Boat Club

19th January; 2nd & 16th February; 2nd, 16th & 30th March 2010

Notice of Race

Note: Competitors please note that the ethos of the Couch Potato Series is to provide a 'fun' sailing event and should be sailed accordingly.

A series of virtual races will be held in the Clubhouse commencing on Tuesday 19th January 2010 and continuing every second Tuesday for a total of 6 evenings (series ends 30th March, 2010) in virtual classes as designated by the race committee. Laptops will be available for competitors to use on the night.

Entry fees will be €25 for the whole series or €5 each night for those who can't or don't wish to race the entire series. The proceeds will be donated to the Junior Boat Fund.

The precise format of the races will be decided on the night by the race committee and will be dependant on the number of competitors on a given night.

It is the responsibility of each entrant to decide whether he or she should sail or not, in such weather conditions as may prevail. Competitors are reminded that they sail entirely at their own risk. The attention of each competitor is drawn to the potential dangers of sailing at this time of year. Personal flotation devices will be available for use by Competitors.

The classes of boats raced will be decided by the race organisers.

A full briefing & technical setup for persons wishing to use their own laptops will take place at 2000 hrs on each night of racing.

It is intended to sound the warning signal for the first race at 2030 on each night.

Clontarf Yacht & Boat Club accepts no responsibility for damage to personal laptops or any possible security problems developing as a result of connecting to the CY&BC local area network. It is recommended that all laptops being provided by competitors have up-to-date anti-virus & anti-malware software installed.

Please email any enquiries or expressions of interest to attend to help gauge the level of interest to CYBCVirtualRacing@gmail.com.
